SHAKESPEARE WEEK

16-22 March 2015

Become a Magical Creature Maker!

FOR PRIMARY-SCHOOL TEACHERS, CHILDREN AND FAMILIES

In Shakespeare's play A Midsummer Night's Dream, there are four fairies whose names are inspired by nature. Maybe their names are clues as to what they're like and the kind of things that they like to do. What do you think?

COBWEB
Traps things?

MUSTARDSEED
Fiery temper?

MOTH
Nibbles clothes?

PEASEBLOSSOM
Delicate and well-behaved?

: The fairies in 1623's Midsummer Magic, which is available now for performances and accompanying theatre workshops in schools

We're inviting you to take inspiration from Shakespeare and nature by dreaming up and drawing your very own magical creatures, giving them a personality and naming them.

Then send them to us and we'll add them to an enchanted forest on our website for you and other people to enjoy.

Please send your drawings by post to: 1623 at QUAD, Market Place, Cathedral Quarter, Derby DE1 3AS. Or you can email a digital photo or scan of your drawing to learning@1623theatre.co.uk

SHAKESPEARE WEEK

Please send your magical creatures to us by Friday 20 March 2015. While we won't be able to return them to you by post, they will be displayed in the enchanted forest on our website in Shakespeare Week and beyond.
